WASHOE COUNTY—ITS TIMBER INTERESTS AND FINANCES.

[Prepared for the Reno Board of Trade.]

The timber interest of Washoe county is for the time being second in importance only to her agricultural interests; as before stated we have ninety thousand acres of timber land which at this time is being rapidly cleared of its forest covering to supply the mills and mines with wood, lumber and timber. The works of the Pacific Wood, Lumber and Flume Company are located in the Sierra Nevada Mountains about twelve miles west by south from Reno, and are doing the larger portion of the business of the timber region. The Company run two steam saw mills with a combined capacity of one hundred thousand feet per day of twenty-four hours. The work of the present season, six months, in round numbers amounts to one hundred dred thousand cords of wood, twenty-four million feet of timber and lumber all of which is transported from the mountain sides to the line of the V. & T. R. R. at Huffakers through fifteen miles of V flume and from thence to Virginia City by rail. The estimated cost of cutting and delivering wood on the line of the railroad is four dollars and twelve and one-half cents per cord and the season's disbursements of six hundred thousand dollars. Parties best acquainted with the timber range estimate the present rate of consumption will clear the mountains in five years. Aside from the Pacific Wood, Lumber and Flume Co.'s works, other parties have cut fifty thousand cords of wood for the Virginia market; add to this amount wood and lumber cut for home consumption and the aggregate disbursements for labor will not fall short of one million dollars. Should it be suggested that with the destruction of our forest Washoe county must like Ormsby fall into a decline, we answer—that so long as silver mining is the leading business of this State, wood, timber and lumber is a necessity. That when Nevada can no longer meet the demand, California must supply us, and when California furnishes, railroad communication with her northern counties becomes a necessity and one end of that road must of necessity be in Washoe county. Give us railroad communication with the mountains and valleys of northern California and the assessable values of our county will reach six millions; within two years the population of Reno will rival Virginia City, and within five years take the capital if she wants it. Unquestionably this will be called wild speculation by such persons as are unacquainted with the geography of that portion of California. East of and in the foot hills of the Sierra Nevada mountains, a rich and extensive country virtually cut off from a market other than Nevada, rich in her agricultural resources, rich in her minerals, rich in her unequaled timber lands. She patiently waits knowing that Nevada's necessity is her opportunity and when that opportunity comes Washoe county more than any other will reap the advantages to arise from this inter State commerce. The wood and lumber trade must pass over our territory and pay tribute to our people.

FINANCIAL CONDITION.

The financial condition of Washoe county is the pride of every citizen; to-day fifty thousand dollars lies idle in her treasury. Her assessment roll foots up about three and one-half million dollars, her rate of taxation for State and county purposes, one dollar and eighty cents on the one hundred dollars, a lower rate of taxation than is imposed upon any other county in the State, with our continued growth in material wealth and a steadily increasing prosperity, the reasonable probabilities are that a still lower rate of taxation will in the future suffice to meet all current expenses of the county, holding intact our present surplus to meet unforseen contingencies. The county is provided with an excellent Court House, built of brick, two stories high, on a sightly location. The square of ground on which the Court House stands, donated by M. C. Lake, is substantially enclosed, seeded to clover and adorned with shade trees that in a few years will add largely to the attractions of the place, already sufficiently attractive, if we may judge from the number of applicants for a more or less permanent residence within classic shades. The county has also a poor farm and the necessary buildings for the accommodation of such of our people as, through misfortune or accident, become unable to support themselves, and are without friends, upon whom the burden rightly belongs. The farm contains forty acres of good land, located about one mile east of Reno, on the south side of the river. This land, with water for irrigation, was purchased of A. J. Hatch for the sum of one thousand dollars. The buildings have been erected at a cost of five thousand dollars or more. The arrangements seem to be perfect in every respect, and will make homes for Washoe county's unfortunate poor, such as the most of them have not enjoyed in the hey day of their prosperity. The institution is a noble charity in which a generous people may well take pride. The policy of keeping a large surplus of coin in the treasury is certainly bad, and it is quite as certain that no considerable number of intelligent people are desirous that the present plethoric condition of the Washoe county treasury should continue. The presumption is that our surplus funds will be invested in roads and bridges, such investments return principal and interest to the people from whom it was originally taken, and more than any other possible investment add to the resources of the county, enabling us to still further reduce future taxation, or if need be restore the surplus without imposing increase of burden on the taxpayers. In view of the present and prospective condition of our county affairs, our business prospects, growth in population, wealth and influence, we are constrained to renew the invitations heretofore extended to brains, capital and labor to cast their lot with us and with us share the promised to such as seek diligently.

CHANGE OF SENTIMENT.

According to the dispatches Indiana has undergone a great political change of sentiment. An election was held there on Tuesday to fill a vacancy in the State Senate, caused by the death of the former incumbent. The district in which the election was held has heretofore been Democratic, and in view of the fact that the political control of the State depend on the result, unusual efforts were made by the Democrats to elect their candidate. The election of the Democratic candidate would have made the Senate Democratic by one, while the election of the Republican candidate makes it Republican by one majority. The district is composed of the counties of Madison and Delaware. Madison, at the Presidential election in November gave Tilden over 800 majority, while on Tuesday last it gave Doxy (Republican candidate) 160 majority, thus securing his election.

ADDRESS OF THE UNION LEAGUE.

The Chicago Times of yesterday morning publishes an address of the National Union League of Illinois, said to be in secret circulation throughout the State. The document is signed by the Grand Secretary and is headed by Robert Ingersoll as President. It states that another crisis in the affairs of our country is fast approaching, threatening no less danger to the liberties of its citizens than that of 1861. We believe, it says, it is a time when the patriots and lovers of the Union should be on guard, remembering that in union is strength. A call is made upon all patriots in every city and town throughout the State to organize for the defense and protection of our sacred institutions. By prompt action there can within the next sixty days be enrolled in our State not less than 100,000 National Union Leaguers. The veterans of the late war are earnestly invited to actively co-operate with other loyal citizens to prolong and perfect the proposed organization. The document closes by saying that the necessary papers for organization will be forwarded on application.

Irrigation Interests of Nevada.

Under this caption the Grass Valley Union takes occasion to give us a favorable notice of irrigation projects, heretofore mentioned by the JOURNAL. The Union says.

Our neighboring State is fast losing its right to the name of "the Sagebrush State," and instead is assuming the fertility so prevalent in California. Rain is not depended upon so entirely there as here, but ditches are being introduced in the valleys and a thorough system of irrigation inaugurated. Washoe Valley, which is as fertile as any in that State, already has several ditches leading from the Truckee, and to this fact owes in a great measure its agricultural claims. Cosy houses and productive farms now take the place of the sagebrush wastes. Alfalfa and potatoes flourish there in a remarkable degree. The fact being so repeatedly demonstrated that water is all that is needed to reclaim this from sterility to fertility, several projects to introduce water on a large scale are on foot. Surveyors have just completed the final survey for a ditch to leave the Truckee river at Bronco and reach Washoe Valley near Reno at an altitude sufficient to irrigate a large portion of Peavine Hill. This ditch will be able to irrigate about 200,000 acres of now inaccessible land. It will be the means of reclaiming several sandy deserts and will make Western Nevada quite an agricultural section. Actual work will be commenced in the Spring and the 31 miles of ditch will be dug as rapidly as possible. The channel is three feet deep by eight feet wide. Heavy financial backing makes this enterprise an assured fact.

To the Southeast of Reno, at a distance of between four and eight miles there are now from 6,000 to 8,000 acres of railroad land which is free from rock and as level as a table. It is only two or three miles from the line of the railroad and is a very desirable location. A ditch runs near the track so that water can be easily obtained. This land will all be taken up by Spring by men of moderate means who in a short time will gather around them nice houses and farms and get comfortable livings from the soil. A good opening is thus afforded for a hundred families to get desirable land close to market. Sagebrush abounds of course, but is much easier cleared than the chaparral land around here. That entire country, clear to the Oregon line is being rapidly settled, property is rapidly increasing in value and the time is not far distant when all those who rear little homes for themselves will find that they have increased many times in value. That is a good country for an industrious man.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

The Situation Practically as it was on the 6th Inst., Minus the Twenty-Second Joint Rule—Waiting for Report of Southern Committee—Congressional Matters Including Mr. Hewitt's Charge Against Postmaster James—"General" Butler of Hamburg Notoriety—Fernando Wood, the National Republican and Christmas.

[From our own Correspondent.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23, 1876.

ED. JOURNAL:—The impression is generally prevalent about town that no material progress will be made towards harmonizing the differences of the House and Senate relative to the method of counting and declaring the electoral vote, until the committees sent South shall have completed their labors there and made their reports; and many predict that even then, a reconciliation of views will be found impossible. Almost three weeks of the session have resulted in nothing more definite in the matter than to establish the fact that Mr. Randall and his Democratic followers of the House will have the Senate almost solidly against them, in any attempt to count in Mr. Tilden by virtue of the Twenty-second Joint Rule, which was the corner stone upon which the fabric of their hopes chiefly rested on the opening day of the session. Grover has found the Republic ungrateful for his services. He has been treated with positive rudeness and disrespect by his own political friends. Throughout all the discussions in Congress, provoked by his desperate expedient to save the great cause of "Honesty and Reform," an indisposition has been manifest to white-wash his illegal action by pleading the purity of his motives. This is about as far as anyone has ventured to go in his defense, and hardly one serious effort has been made in behalf of Cronin's right to cast one of Oregon's electoral votes. The situation then, at the end of the third week, remains practically the same as on the 6th instant; after the Electors of the several States have met and cast their votes, 185 for Hayes and 184 for Tilden, with the Twenty second Joint Rule eliminated (probably) and the case of several Electors (besides the Oregon case) before the Senate Committee of Privileges and Elections, for investigation. Under the circumstances the last hope of Democracy seems to rest in their ability to successfully impeach the Republican position in one of the three States, South Carolina, Florida or Louisiana. But if it should prove difficult for the Republicans of either, to positively establish their legal right to its electoral vote, how superlatively difficult will it be for their opponents to demonstrate their right to it, in the face of all their efforts to succeed through terrorism and fraud, which have been reluctantly admitted by Democratic Senators, who sought to exterminate such crimes by allegations of Governor Kellogg's inefficiency. General Butler and other prominent men are said to favor an act by Congress, appointing some day in May for a new election, with every possible precaution against fraud and intimidation, the President of the Senate to act from the fourth of March until the newly elected President shall have qualified for his duties. There are no lack of other plans, proposed by Statesmen ambitious of the distinction of lifting our country "from the pit of miry clay" and putting her fairly on her feet again. A few matters of routine legislation have received attention, but the all engrossing matter of the Presidency is always present with our legislators at both ends of the Capitol, coloring and giving direction to every day's proceedings. The Senate Committee, to meet a like one appointed under McCrary's resolution on the part of the House to devise a method satisfactory to the country for counting the electoral vote, has been designated, consisting of four Republicans and three Democrats, conceded by among the ablest of the two parties represented on the floor of the Senate. No Democrat, however partizan, can complain that Mr. Ferry has not acted with impartial fairness in his selection of this important committee. Will Mr. Randall reciprocate? Confidence in his disposition to do so is not very overwhelming. Much dissatisfaction, and some indignation is expressed in various quarters at the unjustifiable delay of the House majority in admiting Judge Belford to his seat as the Representative from Colorado. Many days have elapsed since the vote of the Judiciary Committee in his favor, but there is, as yet, no indication that the House has heard of such action. The adoption by the House of the majority report of the Judiciary Committee in reference to the power of committees to demand the production of papers and telegrams under subpoena of the House, rendered still more offensive by Mr. Knott's recommendation, declaring that telegraphic dispatches are no more privileged than are oral communications, has excited much hostility among the intelligent Democrats in and out of Congress. It has come to be felt here that whenever the House adopts any measure engineered by that Kentucky Statesman, it will invariably be found to be a step backward towards mediaeval practice. If Mr. Abram Hewitt has been Chief of the Liberty street bureau of "nincompoops" he could not have been guilty of a more serious faux pas than when he states to the House that he had reason to believe his correspondence had been tampered with in the New York Post-office. He evidently forgets his precipitancy, as it has brought out a challenge from the Postmaster for proof, and the whole matter has passed out of his hands into those of an investigating committee. His grounds for the charge, as he half-deprecatingly gave them to the House, were an anonymous letter, which he says he burnt up, and the corrugated condition of the flaps of envelops which came to him among his other mail matter. How he can reconcile the exceptional efficiency of Mr. James—so efficient that he hoped Mr. Tilden would retain him, as he intimates to the House—with such criminal proceedings directly under that official's nose, he did not explain. The members of Wade Hampton's Legislature have hastened to emphasize that gentleman's assurances in his inauguration speech, that his supporters were the law abiding element of the State, and accepted the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments in their full spirit and intent, by electing "General" Butler to represent them in the United States Senate, a person now under indictment for his leading part in the deliberate murder of several negroes at Hamburg, South Carolina, on the Fourth of July of the present year. Fernando Wood appears to feel the poisoned arrows with which the editor of the National Republican drove him into a personal explanation before the House a few days ago. The cruel archer is pressing home his advantages in every issue of his paper. The revelations of the Republican attracted a good deal of unpleasant attention. As the usual holiday recess is not to be taken by Congress, thus preventing the return to their homes of any but a very limited number of members, extensive preparations are making for the celebration of Christmas week here. The shops are arrayed in the most seductive manner, and are liberally patronized. The weather is cold, dull and gloomy; and the lamentations of the very poor—houseless, unfed, unclothed, sick and dying, assail the ear at every turn.

50 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR.

FIFTY CENTS ON THE DOLLAR.—Although Messrs. Grey & Isaacs are selling off their choice stock of Winter dry goods, etc., etc., at the above rate, people must not infer that they have compromised with their creditors. Not by any means. Seeing Grey & Isaacs have established for themselves an A No. 1 credit with the wholesale importers in the country, and why? Because they meet their payments promptly, and pay 100 cents on the dollar every time. However, when opportunity offers, wherein they can buy desirable goods at a sacrifice, they take advantage of the same and give their patrons the full benefit. They do not by any means extort the full 100 cents on the dollar. Nor yet do they preach what they fail to practice. No hypocrisy. No monopoly. No misrepresentation, with Grey & Isaacs; but honor, fair dealing and truthfulness is their policy. People of Reno! we stand by our past record and leave it to a wise and intelligent community to decide whether we have brought down the prices or not, as well as having established for ourselves a reputation which will be hard for our opponents to efface. We do not fear the popular verdict, seeing we have done unto others as we would be done by, and pledge ourselves to follow in the same course in the future. We justly claim to have the best selected stock of dry goods, upholstery goods, house furnishings, carpets, flannels, etc., etc., in the State. No old shelf worn goods that have been accumulating for years past, but fresh and desirable goods. We defy any house in Reno to produce such a stock, either for magnitude, cheapness or beauty. Ladies, don't be gulled by hypocritical humbugs, but call on the people's friends, Grey & Isaacs, and select your wants from the largest and most elegant stock of dry goods in the State at 50 cents on the dollar.

* Resp'ly, GREY & ISAACS.

A LARGE AND BEAUTIFUL STOCK OF GOODS.—C. J. Brookins has just received in store a large and beautiful stock of holiday goods of every description, all of which he will sell cheap. He has photographic albums of all sizes and prices, and all kinds of musical instruments; dolls, cups and saucers, spoons, knives and forks, and everything else, almost, for children, and a thousand and one things of elegant make and pattern for adults. Brookins' is the place to get your holiday goods; your presents for your wives, daughters, sons and friends. Call and see his stock. It will cost you nothing if you don't buy.

FURNISHED rooms to let on reasonable terms. Apply at D. McKay's new brick house. *

SELLING OUT.—Mrs. L. M. Chase is determined to close out, regardless of price, her large and varied assortment of dry goods and miscellaneous articles. Now is the time to buy cheap goods *

WANTED —A woman or girl to do general housework, a number one situation. Apply immediately at this office. *

HOUSE TO RENT.—Containing six rooms. Enquire of J. D. Shaw, Western Hotel. *

FALL AND WINTER OPENING.—The latest novelties in Fall and Winter fashions will be opened out at Mrs. John J. Prescott's fashionable establishment, next door to the Postoffice. Thursday, Sept. 7th, where all the ladies of Reno and vicinity are invited to call. In addition to the above we are requested to inform the ladies that Mrs. Prescott is prepared to sell her elegant and newly selected stock of millinery at marvelously low prices, and all she asks is for the ladies to call and convince themselves.

SHOOTING SCRAPE —We came near having a man for breakfast yesterday morning. About 10:30 John Lancaster took a shot at Joe Keavles in the Beer Hall on Virginia street, the ball taking effect in the back of the left shoulder and coming out about five inches below, only inflicting a flesh wound. Dr. Johnson dressed the wound temporarily. The row originated over a game of pedro for two-bits a corner, and Lancaster had a thieving contrivance under and attached to the table by which means he was enabled to steal cards from the table at will. The other man detected the "little joker" and grabbed the "pot." Lancaster drew his bulldog and Keavles backed away from the table; Lancaster followed him up, shoving the pistol in his face, and Keavles drew a knife, but before he could use it, as he intended, some person stepped in between the parties, and this gave Lancaster a chance to shoot. Constable arrested and lodged them in jail. The case will come up before Judge Gilson to-day for examination.

MENTION was made yesterday of Mrs. Hymers' case. Our item was entirely wrong. Dr. Dawson has and is still in charge of the case, and gives the best of satisfaction, and his patient is improving rapidly. A neuralgic affection in the wrist is the cause of the stiffness of the arm, but electricity is being appled to it, with good success. The arm will not be re-broken, and was set in the first place as skillfully and correctly by Dr. Dawson as could have been done by any surgeon in the State.

PEAVINE BULLION.—Another bar of bullion was brought down from the Con. Poe yesterday, and deposited with J. E. Jones & Co. who shipped it off last night. The bar was worth about $700.

THE many friends of Mrs. L. M Chase, who has been very ill, will be pleased to learn that she is rapidly recovering.

IN TOWN.—Mr. D. W. Earl came up from below yesterday. He is always welcome in Reno.
